

Cardtronics to Manage Entire ATM Fleet for TDECU

March 20, 2018

HOUSTON, March 20, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cardtronics (Nasdaq:CATM) today announced that TDECU, the largest credit union in Houston with more than 275,000 members, has selected Cardtronics to operate and manage its entire ATM fleet. Cardtronics is the world's largest ATM owner / operator.

In an expansion of its existing ATM services relationship with Cardtronics, TDECU will now turn to Cardtronics to operate and manage 105 TDECU ATMs – including 36 Member Center ATMs, as well as TDECU's entire fleet of off-premise ATMs, which features locations such as Buc-ee's convenience stores, the University of Houston, plus additional retail, education, professional and government office, medical center, and entertainment venue locations.

Additionally, TDECU Members have surcharge-free access to 55,000 ATMs worldwide, as part of the credit union's membership in the Allpoint surcharge-free ATM network. Allpoint is a wholly owned subsidiary of Cardtronics.

"Transitioning the management of our ATM fleet to Cardtronics enables TDECU to maintain great Member experiences and exceptional service delivery as we realize operational efficiencies," said Steve Stevens, SVP - Retail Lending, TDECU. "By partnering with Cardtronics as our enterprise-wide ATM specialist, TDECU can increase its focus on innovative technology and digital services for our Members."

"Cardtronics has proven itself as a trusted ATM services partner for TDECU," said Brian Bailey, Cardtronics Managing Director – North America. "By looking to us to operate and manage the entire TDECU ATM fleet, TDECU has affirmed Cardtronics as the ATM specialist of choice. We are the preferred ATM specialist to help maintain a strong physical presence for self-service banking, which enables financial institutions to focus on delivering superior digital experiences to complement their physical channels."
