

Cardtronics Partners with Bank of the West to Offer ATMs in Key Markets

November 1, 2018

More than 140 Cardtronics ATMs at Walgreens stores in Denver and Sacramento will feature the Bank of the West brand and offer fee-free withdrawals for Bank of the West cardholders

HOUSTON, November 1, 2018 – Through a new relationship between Cardtronics and Bank of the West, 143 ATMs will be placed in select Walgreens stores in Denver, Colorado and Sacramento, California, providing the bank's cardholders access to their cash in safe, convenient locations.

"One of the core strategic goals of Cardtronics is to help financial institutions extend their service footprint in ways that are equally cost-effective and customer-focused," said Brian Bailey, Cardtronics EVP and Managing Director – North America. "By partnering with Cardtronics, Bank of the West is able to access prime locations that deliver real brand value while also enabling greater cardholder convenience, and they were able to do so quickly."

Through this partnership with Cardtronics, Bank of the West significantly increases its visible presence and brand awareness in two key markets, while expanding fee-free withdrawal convenience for Bank of the West customers. These additions triple the total number of cash access locations for Bank of the West customers in Denver, and nearly quadruple ATM locations in Sacramento.

"This rapid expansion of our ATM locations in Denver and Sacramento reflects our commitment to delivering convenience and exceptional service," said Ryan Bailey, Head of Retail Banking at Bank of the West. "For our customers, we want to meet them where they are; whether in a branch, online, in our mobile app, or at an ATM in Walgreens."

All participating ATM locations can be found using the Bank of the West branch and ATM locator.
